

CHICAGO MERCANTILE EXCHANGE INC.
CLEARING HOUSE OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE
CHARTER¹

I. Purpose

The Clearing House Oversight Committee (the “Committee”) is a Committee of the Board of Directors (“Board”) of Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. (“CME”). The purpose of the Committee is to provide oversight of the risk management activities and the senior management of the Clearing House, including oversight with respect to the effectiveness of the risk management program, but excluding operational risks as overseen by the Risk Committee.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee shall prioritize the safety and efficiency of the Clearing House, generally support the stability of the broader financial system and consider legitimate interests of clearing members and customers of clearing members at all times in accordance with prudent risk management standards (including systemic risk mitigation) and best practices in the industry.

II. Membership & Organization

- The members of the Committee and its Chairperson shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Corporate Governance Principles; provided, however, the Chair may not be a Clearing Risk Committee Member (as defined below).
- The Committee shall be comprised of at least six (6) or more non-executive directors and shall include the members of the Board who serve as chairperson(s) or as members on the Clearing House Risk Committee and/or the Interest Rate Swaps Risk Committee (the “Clearing Risk Committee Members”); provided, however the number of other non-executive directors must be equal to or exceed the number of Clearing Risk Committee Members.

III. Engagement of Outside Advisors

- The Committee shall have the resources and authority appropriate to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including the authority to engage independent professional advisors, as it deems appropriate, and may direct the proper officers of CME to pay the reasonable fees and expenses of any such advisor.

IV. Committee Meetings, Tasks and Authority

General

- The Committee shall meet as often as the Chairperson determines necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities but no less frequently than quarterly and keep minutes of its proceedings.
- The Chairperson shall schedule all meetings of the Committee and provide the Committee with a written agenda, as appropriate. A quorum of the Committee shall be a majority of the appointed members of the Committee. A motion shall pass upon approval from a majority of the members present; provided, however, that at least one of the Committee members who is not a Clearing Risk Committee Member must have voted in favor of the motion. The Committee may ask members of management or others to attend the meeting and provide information or recommendations, as necessary.
- The Committee shall perform its responsibilities in accordance with this Charter and applicable regulatory requirements.

¹ The terms “significant” and “substantive” have the meanings ascribed to them in Appendix D to the Commitment and Signing Authority Policy.

- Amendments to the Clearing House's rules that do not have a significant impact to the Clearing House's risk profile, as discussed below, may be submitted to the Committee for approval by electronic polling and shall be considered approved upon receipt of approval from all members of the Committee.
