Glass Lewis, Egan-Jones Recommend CME Shareholders Vote 'FOR' Merger with CBOT

Recommendations are the second and third from independent advisors in support of the CME-CBOT Merger

CHICAGO, July 2, 2007 – Chicago Mercantile Exchange Holdings Inc. (NYSE/Nasdaq: CME) announced that Glass Lewis & Co., a leading proxy advisory firm, and Egan-Jones Ratings Co., an investor-driven ratings firm, have recommended that CME Holdings shareholders vote “FOR” the merger with CBOT Holdings at the Special Shareholders Meeting scheduled for July 9, 2007.

These two endorsements are in addition to the recommendation last week from Institutional Shareholder Services Inc. (ISS), a leading independent U.S. proxy advisory firm that offers voting analyses and recommendations that are relied upon by hundreds of major institutional investment funds, mutual funds and fiduciaries throughout the country.

In making its recommendation, Glass Lewis stated the following:

“The combination will result in the creation of the world’s largest exchange company with a diverse product offering. Furthermore, the board believes that the combined company would be better positioned to compete in the rapidly consolidating exchange industry.”

The report concluded: “. . . we believe that this proposal warrants shareholder approval.” *

The Board of Directors of CME Holdings unanimously recommends that shareholders vote “FOR” the adoption of the agreement and plan of merger, and the Board of Directors of CME unanimously recommends that CME members vote “FOR” the matters related to the merger as described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus and the supplement.
