Item 3.02. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

On November 2, 2018, CME Group Inc. (the “Company”) and CME London Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, completed their previously announced acquisition of NEX Group plc (“NEX Group”) (the “Acquisition”). The Acquisition was effected by means of a scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the U.K. Companies Act 2006. On November 5, 2018, as part of the consideration for the Acquisition, the Company issued to NEX Group shareholders 16,926,582 shares of Company Class A Common Stock (the “New Common Stock”). The issuance of the New Common Stock has not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”) or any state securities laws and was made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements of the Act pursuant to Section 3(a)(10) of the Act. Following the completion of the Acquisition, approximately 357,773,683 shares of Class A Common Stock of the Company are outstanding.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Following the completion of the Acquisition, on November 2, 2018, Mr. Michael Spencer, the Chief Executive Officer and a director of NEX Group, was appointed to the board of directors of the Company (“Board”). Pursuant to an amended employment agreement, entered into by and among Mr. Spencer, the Company, and NEX, Mr. Spencer has been initially appointed to the Board until the Company’s next annual meeting and it is anticipated that the Board will nominate him for re-election at the Company’s 2019 annual meeting. During the term of his amended employment agreement, Mr. Spencer will not receive any compensation for his service on the Board, other than the reimbursement of certain expenses available to all directors.

With respect to those relationships and related party transactions with the Company that are required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K, Mr. Spencer disclosed the following:

- Exotix Holdings Ltd. Mr. Spencer (through IPGL (Holdings) Limited (“IPGL”), a private investment company controlled by Mr. Spencer) owns approximately 87% of Exotix Holdings Ltd (“Exotix”) and NEX Group owns approximately 4% of Exotix. Exotix is a London-based provider of trade and investment services in emerging markets around the world. As part NEX Group’s acquisition of its interest in Exotix from IPGL in 2007, a loan of £1.5 million was made to an entity within the Exotix group. In September 2018, this loan together with accrued interest was capitalized as part of a restructuring exercise. During NEX Group’s fiscal year ended March 31, 2018, NEX Group provided Exotix with a loan for £0.5 million. At September 30, 2018, there was a balance due from Exotix to NEX Group of £0.5m. During NEX Group’s fiscal year ended March 31, 2018, NEX Group did not collect any revenue from Exotix.
- Gain Capital Holdings, Inc. Mr. Spencer (through IPGL) owns 12.6% of GAIN Capital Holdings, Inc. (“GAIN”) as well as $52.2 million of convertible debt issued by GAIN. GAIN is a US-based, Nasdaq-listed provider of online trading service and provides market access and trade execution services in foreign exchange, contracts for difference and exchange-based products to retail investors. During NEX Group’s fiscal year ended March 31, 2018, NEX Group collected revenue of £0.2 million from GAIN. During the Company’s nine months ended September 30, 2018, the Company collected revenue of $1.3 million from GAIN.

Also pursuant to the amended employment agreement, on November 6, 2018, Mr. Spencer transitioned from Chief Executive Officer of NEX Group to serve as a special advisor to the Company for a period of two years following the completion of the Acquisition, during which time he will continue to receive his existing salary of £750,000 and the benefits as provided to him prior to the completion of the Acquisition, other than bonus and share award opportunities.

A copy of the amended employment agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, and the foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the amended employment agreement, which is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 2, 2018, the Company issued a press release announcing the completion of the Acquisition. A copy of the press release containing such announcement is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein.

2.1 It is a condition precedent to the effectiveness of this Deed that the Acquisition is completed.

CME Group Completes Acquisition of NEX, Creating a Leading Global Markets Company Across Futures, Cash and OTC

CHICAGO and LONDON, Nov. 2, 2018 – CME Group Inc. (Nasdaq: CME) today announced that it has completed its acquisition of NEX Group plc (NXG.L). The combined company will enable clients worldwide to trade futures, cash and over-the-counter (OTC) markets, optimize portfolios and analyze data to efficiently manage risk and capture opportunities.

CME Group will retire the NEX name and brand but will continue to operate its individual Markets and Optimisation businesses as sub-brands including BrokerTec, EBS, Traiana and TriOptima. Corporate headquarters will remain in Chicago, with London continuing to serve as CME Group's European headquarters.

CME Group will use its technology, futures trading and product development expertise to strengthen and scale NEX businesses, while preserving their existing market structures. The combined company's leading electronic FX and fixed income platforms will deliver new trading opportunities and simplify access by reducing the number of touchpoints to trade across platforms. In addition, the combined company's post-trade services expertise will strengthen its compression, reconciliation and processing businesses.

"We are extremely pleased to complete this acquisition and welcome NEX into CME Group," said CME Group Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Terry Duffy. "By combining the strengths of our two leading organizations, CME Group is uniquely positioned to address the changing needs of market participants worldwide. Together, we will provide efficient access to futures, cash and OTC markets, as well as post-trade services and data offerings that will further support cost-effective trading and risk management."

"Michael Spencer and his team have built NEX into a world-class company. Our combined organization will preserve the existing market structure of our various businesses while also creating efficiencies and streamlining technology for our clients. With a significantly expanded global footprint, we are committed to ensuring a smooth transition for all customers and partners going forward."

"Today NEX becomes part of the world's leading exchange group," said Michael Spencer. "Together we will continue to innovate and deliver industry-leading technology to our customers and help to drive the continued development of the financial markets. I am excited about the future for this combined group and the many new opportunities that it will provide for our employees, customers and the wider marketplace. I look forward to working with Terry, the CME Group Board of Directors and the combined team from both CME and NEX as we shape and grow the company."

As previously announced, today Spencer has joined the CME Group Board of Directors and will remain with the combined company as a Special Adviser, working with key clients, regulators and officials in EMEA and Asia.

The acquisition is expected to be immediately accretive to adjusted cash earnings per share and creates a company with pro forma 2017 annual revenue of $4.3 billion. CME Group will begin integrating NEX business operations and anticipates run-rate cost synergies of $200 million annually by the end of 2021.
