We also reached significant records in many of our U.S. Treasury products where ADV increased 36% to 8.2 million contracts."

"As we move through the remainder of 2024, we will continue to focus on delivering capital efficiencies, bringing new products to market and creating additional value for our clients through our partnership with Google Cloud."

Second-quarter 2024 average daily volume (ADV) was 25.9 million contracts, including non-U.S. ADV, which reached a record 7.8 million contracts.
